

Anti Cyber Bullying Laws In India :An Introduction

Dr. Amit Kumar Srivastava

Bullying possibly described an intentional illegal work by a person who carries out a harmful, illegal, or immoral act. which, though may not amount to a crime , causes pain suffering or discomfort or anguish or suffering to the victim, either physically or emotionally. In this case victim is usually at the mercy of a person who carries out a harmful or illegal act and the bully uses tactics such as name-calling or Criminal intimidation to achieve his or her goal or target or the place to which someone or something is going or being sent. Bullying may take place in both public and private spaces. It subject to lasting shock as a result of an emotionally disturbing experience or physical injury. the victim and may result in permanent emotional damage. As we are walking into an era of digitalization and mass usage of the internet which includes various social platforms such as Facebook, WhatsApp, E-mail, various gaming platforms etc. and the trend of sharing our personal and professional lives over the social media, people are becoming easy victims of Cyber bullying. When we use the term bullying the first thing which comes into the mind is imagining a school going kid being bullied by his/her fellow mates.