

Domestic Violence Against Women's in Muzaffarpur Town of Bihar: A Case Study

Dr. Pushpa Kumari

Domestic violence is as old as recorded history which has been reported in virtually every society, every civilization. Discrimination and oppression leading to physical, mental or emotional violence have been accepted as a part of every patriarchal society. Except recent reference is found, domestic violence has been both socially and legally acceptable. Some important event, laws, codes, provide historical context, within which conceptualization of domestic violence becomes crystal clear. Two major elements combined to seal the status of women are male dominance and projecting women as 'property' an object belonging to men and secondly expectations from women as an ideal 'role model' suit each other, in such a way as to make her vulnerable and subject to discrimination, oppression and all sorts of victimization and resultantly compel their subordination.

Gender based violence—including rape, domestic violence, mutilation, murder and sexual abuse- is a profound health problem for women across the globe. Nonetheless, it is not considered as a public problem of serious concern.
